Honorable Members of the Board:

I have received your letter dated January 3, 2002, concerning a report that may possibly be due from me because of a deficit on my last report for an election in which I was a candidate 102193. Your letter states that if I was not elected and did not serve in office during the calendar year 2001, if my deficit was less than $2500.00, and the election was held prior to calendar year 1997, and I did not receive any additional contributions or make any loan repayments, I would not be required to file the report.

I was not elected and did not serve in office during calendar year 2001; my deficit was less than $2300.00 ($1279.54); the election was held prior to calendar year 1997 (1995); and I did not receive any additional contributions or make any loan repayments.

I hope this letter will be sufficient information. If you need further information from me, please let me know.

Respectfully,

George Allen Graham
